

(POEM)
INTERNATIONAL LAWS

What are international laws for?

What is the UN meant for?

What is UNCLOS really for?

The pain felt by Ukrainians,

The pain felt by Palestinians,

The pain felt by Greenland,

The pain felt by the Aravallis,

Why don't we feel it too?

We, the citizens-where are our moral duties?

The sovereignty of nations is brushed aside,
All of a sudden, a sitting President is captured,

The strong open fire on the fragile,
Minorities are forced to remain silent.

Terror grows day by day,
We are left with nothing-only to pray.
Scared people run from here to there,
Little babies cry in their mother's lap.
Innocent lives are crushed on busy roads,
Why have international laws gone into silence mode?

SRISHTI KESHAW
GEOGRAPHY DEPARTMENT

2022-25

11793